

Local and Personal

Uncle John Pace is visiting in St. Louis. He has a daughter there.

A. D. Goldenberg has returned from a several days' trip out of the territory.

Master Clinton Wharton, one of the force at the News office, has measles.

M. B. Goldenberg is going to feed 6,000 head of sheep in Quay county this fall.

The Plaza hotel annex is about finished and is a very creditable looking structure.

Herman Gerhardt has recently finished two four-room tenant cottages in Daub addition.

Barnes & Rankin have sold several lots this week on their recently platted addition south of the McGee addition.

Col. T. W. Heman has sunk a well on his homestead. He has plenty of water for all farm purposes.

Sherman Tracey, the Bell ranch cowboy, has spent several days in the city, basking in the smiles of his best girl.

The lambing season is on with the sheepmen in Quay county and the prospect for a splendid increase is flattering.

Hume, the clerk, and assistant to the secretary of the commercial club, has accepted a situation with Col. T. W. Heman.

Thomas Romero has been appointed deputy sheriff for precinct No. 13, in San Miguel county. He spent Thursday in town.

J. J. Harrison is adding the finishing touches to the Glenrock annex and it greatly improves the appearance of his property.

MARRIED:—At Tucumcari, N. M., April 13th by J. W. Campbell, Ed. Harris and Miss Edna Edwards, both of Revuelto, N. M.

Will Glenn spent some time in Alamogordo visiting his family. His wife is spending a month there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wharton.

Hugo Goldenberg, the Santa Rosa sheep ranchman, and brother of our fellow townsmen, A. D. and M. B. Goldenberg, spent last week visiting them.

Cornelius Tayfoya is building a three-room cottage in the McGee addition south of Gallegos' residence. Contractor C. H. Young has the contract, and is building a very substantial house.

G. W. Evans of Richmond, Ky., brother-in-law of Banker C. H. Chenault, came in last week to visit Mrs. Evans, who has spent the winter here for the benefit of her health. Mr. Evans may decide to locate here permanently.

Corn planting is on in earnest now in Quay county.

W. L. Hargis is quitting the Rock Island offices to accept a situation with the Trust & Savings bank.

W. L. Crutcher has just finished a well on his property south of C. H. Chenault's and has plenty of good water at a depth of 212 feet.

W. F. Buchanan, president of the First National bank, was off duty a day or two on account of a slight indisposition.

The Eagle cornice work are this week practically tied up waiting for the Rock Island railway to deliver a delayed shipment of material.

Attorney C. C. Davidson who has been laid up with rheumatism since he returned from court at Santa Rosa, is still suffering considerable pain, and will leave Monday for San Rosalia.

James Bond, a prominent Quay stock man and farmer, and J. M. Hodges, chairman of the board of county commissioners, were business visitors Monday.

T. F. Avent, member of the mounted police, was here from Capitan this week. Avent is one of the fearless and daring officers who has rid his locality of some very undesirable characters.

Col. T. W. Heman has this week received a sack of garden seeds from Delegate W. H. Andrews, also I. C. Barnes has been consigned a large amount and they will distribute them among the people as fast as possible.

The Cabe Adams trial is on again at Katon this week and many of our citizens are attending. Among the number are the following: E. E. Crump, John Wyatt, T. A. Wayne, D. L. Hunt, Emmett Ricks, Sheriff J. A. Street and Attorney W. J. Hiton.

A. R. Carter's enterprise never stops. He is putting out shade trees around the bank building and also on his residence lot, where he will, a little later, put up a five-room residence out of red sandstone, same as the Israel and Jones buildings. He has also contracted for a residence near the auto garage, which will be building right-a-way.

United States Marshal Basil Step of Claremore, I. T., was here the first of the week to take back to his town J. W. Hale, charged with perjury, and R. J. Lewis, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Depositions were taken before Attorney W. J. Hittson in the office of District Attorney M. C. Mechem Saturday in some part of this litigation. Two to three thousand dollars' worth of goods were found in the

THE BARGAIN CORNER!

With every two dollar ($2.00) purchase made in the dry goods department this week you will be entitled to buy 10 yards of 7 1-2 cent Lawn for 40 cents.

With every three dollar ($3.00) purchase you will be entitled to buy 10 yards of best 12 1-2 and 15 cent Lawn or Dress Gingham for 85 cents.

With every five dollar ($5.00) purchase you can buy 10 yards of 35 and 40 cent best novelty Spring Dress Goods for $1.95.

We have just received a shipment of the snappiest and most beautiful muslin underwear that we have ever yet offered for sale.

Our straw hats for both ladies and men are in and we invite your attention to their quality and price.

Gross Kelly & Co.

Sole Agents for W. L. Douglas shoes

possession of J. W. Hale out in the country here recently and Sheriff Street went out and brought Hale and Lewis to town and jailed them on information from U. S. Marshal Step. In the developments Saturday, W. F. Bland, an Oklahoma City attorney, representing Hale's creditors, was arrested under charge of malicious prosecution of Hale and Lewis, and on hearing before Justice of the Peace Ed. Saxon, was bound over and had to give bond before leaving the city. Hale and Lewis were represented by Joe M. Lahay and Judge Allredge.

J. C. Brickley, brother of H. S. Brickley, is expected here the 20th to assist in managing and operating the electric light plant. He will have charge of his brother's interest in the business. A number of transformers have been ordered and will be installed as soon as they arrive. This will greatly improve the electric light service, as well as lighten the work of the company.

C. J. Mussellmann and Miss De Yampert; Roy Welch and Miss Evelyn Smith were a party to Roy Monday.

D. Hixenbaugh, a Nara Visa business man, was in the burg Thursday. He tells the editor of the News that his town is booming.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Muirhead, Misses Murphy, Muirhead and Aber, and Edwards Brothers and W. W. Hicks, were a party to Tucumcari mountain last Sunday.

A. D. Goldenberg has gone to Hutchinson, Kansas, whence he is shipping 3,000 head of mutton sheep to Kansas City. They are going at $7.50 the hundred pounds.

Mrs. Kathleen Babcock died of old age April 16th at Norton at the age of 87 years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Deroys Walsh, with whom she lived. Interment was held at Norton on April 17th.

DIED—at Puerto, April 14th, Mrs. Armenta Fugate, at the age of 36 years. Cause, tuberculosis. Remains were shipped to Jackson, Breathitt county, Ky. She leaves the husband and three children.

The public well at the court house is fitted with a 12-foot windmill and will soon be ready for use. It will look good to see a fence and some trees around the building.

L. C. Beverly returned Thursday from Roswell, where he attended for a week the Panhandle stock show or the annual meeting of the Panhandle stock association. He reports everything A1 and says he was never better treated in his life.